Hi Scott,

Just wanted to say thanks for that magnificent Steinway piano! Both the director and accompanist for the American Boychoir had very high praise for the instrument; I think they at first thought the church owned it. I wish! It sure looked great in our sanctuary. The concert last night was absolutely wonderful. The church has excellent acoustics, and the sound of the boys and piano rang through every corner of the building. Carney and Blumer did a great job with the delivery and removal. Very professional.

The Boychoir usually posts excerpts of their performances and tours on YouTube. I'll try and forward the link to you when it is posted. I can also send you a copy of the program if you'd like. Your full page ad was in the front section.

Best wishes to you!
